5. Website update

Designers would cost too much, upwards of $10,000.

Suggestion to use Layers for Wordpress as it is one time fee for professional version or free for basic version. Greg and Patrick will explore this option.

6. Save on Foods Bin

The Martlet came forward to remind the board that we have shared news stands, 11 of them, that have already been paid for and a new one is going in at Save-On-Foods. The board no longer needs to spend funds to build a new one.
