 - (d) “employee” means a person hired and paid by the society; excluding work-study staff, honorarium paid staff and commissioned staff;
 - (e) “newspaper” means The Nexus or successor.(2) The definitions in the Society Act on the date these bylaws become effective apply to these bylaws.
2. Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; and words importing a female person include a male person and a corporation.

Part 2 – Membership

3. A member of the society shall be a student currently enrolled at Camosun College who has paid student fees or levies that contribute to the funding of the society.
4. Every member shall uphold the constitution and comply with these bylaws.
5. A person shall cease to be a member of the society
 - (a) by delivering her resignation in writing to the secretary of the society or by mailing or delivering it to the address of the society;
 - (b) on her death;
 - (c) on being expelled;
 - (d) on having been a member not in good standing for 4 consecutive months; or
 - (e) on becoming an employee of the society.
6. (1) A member may be expelled by a special resolution of the members passed at a general meeting.
(2) The notice of special resolution for expulsion shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the reason or reasons for the proposed expulsion.
(3) The person who is the subject of the proposed resolution for expulsion shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the general meeting before the special resolution to put to a vote.
7. All members are in good standing except a member who has failed to pay her student fees or levies or any other subscription or debt due and owing by her to the society and she is not in good standing so long as the debt remains unpaid.

Part 3 – Meetings of Members

8. General meetings of the society shall be held at the time and place, in accordance with the Society Act, that the directors decide.
9. Every general meeting, other than an annual general meeting, is an extraordinary general meeting.
10. The directors may, when they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting.
11. (1) Notice of a general meeting shall specify the place, day and hour of meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business.
(2) Notice of a general meeting and any proposed amendment to the society bylaws shall be published in The Nexus at least 14 days prior to the meeting.
(3) Eligible voters at a general meeting shall be members of the society carrying valid Camosun College student identification.
12. The first annual general meeting of the society shall be held not more than 15 months after the date of incorporation and after that an annual general meeting shall be held at least once in every calendar year and not more than 15 months after the holding of the last preceding annual general meeting.

Part 4 – Proceedings at General Meetings

13. Special business is
 - (a) all business at an extraordinary general meeting except the adoption of rules of order; and
 - (b) all business transacted at an annual general meeting, except,
 - (i) the adoption of rules of order;
 - (ii) the consideration of the financial statements;
 - (iii) the report of the directors;
 - (iv) the report of the auditor, if any;
 - (v) the election of directors;
 - (vi) the appointment of the auditor, if required; and
 - (vii) the other business that, under these bylaws, ought to be transacted at an annual general meeting, or business which is brought under consideration by the report of the directors issued with the notice convening the meeting.
14. (1) No business, other than the election of a chairman and the adjournment or termination of the meeting, shall be conducted at a general meeting at a time when a quorum is not present.
(2) If at any time during a general meeting there ceases to be a quorum present, business then in progress shall be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.
(3) A quorum is 10 members of the society or a greater number that the members may determine at a general meeting.
15. If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be terminated; but in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present constitute a quorum.
16. Subject to bylaw 17, the president of the society, the vice president or in the absence of both, one of the other directors present, shall preside as chairman of a general meeting.
17. If at a general meeting
 - (a) there is no president, vice president or other director present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting; or
 - (b) the president and all the other directors present are unwilling to act as chairman, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
18. (1) A general meeting may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
(2) When a meeting is adjourned for 10 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.
(3) Except as provided in this bylaw, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.
19. (1) No resolution proposed at a meeting need be seconded and the chairman of a meeting may move or propose a resolution.
(2) In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall not have a casting or second vote in addition to the vote to which she may be entitled as a member and the proposed resolution shall not pass.
20. (1) A member in good standing present at a meeting of members is entitled to one vote
(2) Voting is by show of hands.
(3) Voting by proxy is not permitted.
21. Subject to the Society Act and these bylaws, all matters of procedure shall be resolved in accordance with the rules set out in Roberts Rules of Order, most current edition.

Part 5 – Directors and Officers

22. (1) The directors may exercise all the powers and do all the acts and things that the society may exercise and do, and which are not by these bylaws or by statute or otherwise lawfully directed or required to be exercised or done by the society in general meeting, but subject, nevertheless, to
 - (a) all laws affecting the society;
 - (b) these bylaws; and
 - (c) rules, not being inconsistent with these bylaws, which are made from time to time by the society in general meeting.
 (2) No rule, made by the society in general meeting, invalidates a prior act of the directors that would have been valid if that rule had not been made
23. (1) The president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and one or more other persons shall be the directors of the society.
 (2) The number of directors shall be 5 or a greater number determined from time to time at a general meeting.
24. (1) The directors shall retire from office at each annual general meeting when their successors shall be elected, except for the president and treasurer, who will retire from office on November 1 of each year after the general election for those two positions (see Part 5b).
 (2) Separate elections shall be held for each office to be filled.
 (3) An election may be by acclamation, otherwise it shall be by ballot.
 (4) If no successor is elected the person previously elected or appointed continues to hold office.
25. (1) The directors may at any time and from time to time appoint a member as a director to fill a vacancy in the directors.
 (2) A director so appointed holds office only until the conclusion of the next following annual general meeting of the society, but is eligible for re-election at the meeting.
26. (1) If a director resigns her office or otherwise ceases to hold office, the remaining directors shall appoint a member to take the place of the former director.
 (2) No act or proceeding of the directors is invalid only by reason of there being less than the prescribed number of directors in office.
27. The members may by special resolution remove a director before the expiration of her term of office, and may elect a successor to complete the term of office.
28. No director shall be remunerated for being or acting as a director but a director shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred by her while engaged in the affairs of the society.
29. The directors shall be members in good standing of the society.
30. Directors are required to keep in confidence those things requiring confidentiality.
31. Directors are required to attend min of 75 percent of the meetings during their term in office, Directors missing more than 3 meeting in a row may be removed from office by resolution of directors.

Part 5b – General Elections

1. General elections for the president and treasurer board positions should be held before Nov. 1 of each year, at which time the new president and treasurer will assume their positions.
2. Sufficient notice of an election shall be given in the Nexus issue prior to the opening of the nomination period. The notice shall include the positions available, requirements for nominations, nomination period, campaign period, and election dates.
3. Candidates need to fill out a nomination form (available in the Nexus office) and follow the election schedule attached to the form.
4. Nominees must be members of the Nexus Publishing Society (registered in at least one Camosun credit course), have contributed to at least three issues of Nexus in the past calendar year, and be nominated by no less than 10 other registered students.
5. Candidates may withdraw their nominations anytime in advance of 48 hours before the polls open by notifying Nexus by email or in writing.
6. Candidates shall be responsible for the removal of all campaign materials no less than 24 hours after the election ends, and should distribute said materials in accordance with the Camosun College policy on materials distribution on campus. No campaign materials shall be visible from the campus voting tables. Should a candidate's materials be visible from the voting tables, they will be disqualified.
7. Nexus will reimburse candidates up to $10 for campaign material costs, provided a receipt is handed in to Nexus staff.
8. In the event that only one candidate runs for a position they shall be acclaimed or not by a yes/no vote.

9. In the case of an election tie, a general meeting will be called and result will be determined by vote of those members who are present.

Part 6 – Proceedings of Directors

32. (1) The directors may meet together at the places they think fit to dispatch business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they see fit.
(2) The directors may from time to time fix the quorum necessary to transact business, and unless so fixed the quorum shall be a majority of the directors then in office.
(3) The president shall be chairman of all meetings of the directors, but if at a meeting the president is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the vice president shall act as chairman; but if neither is present the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman at that meeting.
(4) A director may at any time, and the secretary, on the request of a director, shall, convene a meeting of the directors.
33. (1) The directors may delegate any, but not all, of their powers to committees consisting of the director or directors as they think fit.
(2) A committee so formed in the exercise of the powers so delegated shall conform to any rules imposed on it by the directors, and shall report every act or thing done in exercise of those powers to the earliest meeting of the directors to be held next after it has been done.
34. A committee shall elect a chairman of its meetings; but if no chairman is elected, or if at a meeting the chairman is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present who are members of the committee shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
35. The members of a committee may meet and adjourn, as they think proper.
36. For a first meeting of directors held immediately following the appointment or election of a director or directors at an annual or other general meeting of members, or for a meeting of the directors at which a director is appointed to fill a vacancy in the directors, it is not necessary to give notice of the meeting to the newly elected or appointed director or directors, for the meeting to be constituted, if a quorum of the directors is present.
37. A director who may be absent temporarily from British Columbia may send or deliver to the address of the society a waiver of notice, which may be by letter, email or fax, of any meeting of the directors and may at any time withdraw the waiver, and until the waiver is withdrawn,
(a) no notice of meeting of directors shall be sent to that director; and
(b) any and all meetings of the directors of the society, notice of which has not been given to that director shall, if a quorum of the directors is present, be valid and effective.
38. (1) Questions arising at a meeting of the directors and committee of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes.
(2) In case of an equality of votes the chairman does not have a second or casting vote.
39. No resolution proposed at a meeting of directors or committee of directors need be seconded and the chairman of a meeting may move or propose a resolution.
40. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors and placed with the minutes of the directors is as valid and effective as if regularly passed at a meeting of directors.

Part 7 – Duties of Officers

41. (1) The president shall preside at all meetings of the society and of the directors.
(2) The president is the chief executive officer of the society and shall supervise the other officers in the execution of their duties.

 - (b) render financial statements to the directors, members and others when required; and
45. (1) The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person who shall be known as the secretary treasurer.
- (2) When a secretary treasurer holds office the total number of directors shall not be less than 5 or the greater number that may be determined pursuant to bylaw 23 (2).
46. In the absence of the secretary from a meeting, the directors shall appoint another person to act as secretary at the meeting.
47. The directors shall appoint one officer to act as Staff Liaison to employees of the society.

Part 8 – Seal

48. The directors may provide a common seal for the society and may destroy a seal and substitute a new seal in its place.
49. The common seal shall be affixed only when authorized by a resolution of the directors and then only in the presence of the persons prescribed in the resolution, or if no persons are prescribed, in the presence of the president and secretary or president and secretary treasurer.

Part 9 – Borrowing

50. In order to carry out the purposes of the society the directors may, on behalf of and in the name of the society, raise or secure the payment or repayment of money in the manner they decide, and, in particular but without limiting the foregoing, by the issue of debentures.
51. No debenture shall be issued without the sanction of a special resolution.
52. The members may by special resolution restrict the borrowing powers of the directors, but a restriction imposed expires at the next annual general meeting.

Part 10 – Auditor

53. This Part applies only where the society is required or has resolved to have an auditor
54. The first auditor shall be appointed by the directors who shall also fill all vacancies occurring in the office of auditor.
55. At each annual general meeting the society shall appoint an auditor to hold office until she is re-elected or her successor is elected at the next annual general meeting.
56. An auditor may be removed by ordinary resolution.
57. An auditor shall be promptly informed in writing of appointment or removal.
58. No director and no employee of the society shall be auditor.
59. The auditor may attend general meetings.

Part 11 - Bylaws

60. On being admitted to membership, each member is entitled to and the society shall give her, without charge, a copy of the constitution and bylaws of the society.
61. These bylaws shall not be altered or added to except by special resolution.
