

It's been a steady year. The anomaly is that we made the decision to send our staff to two journalism conference, rather than the usual one. Kate will elaborate on that in a moment. Aside from that, I think that generally Nexus has settled into a good rhythm over the past few years.

This may very well be my last AGM for Nexus. I've been on the board for six years. I've seen this place grow and evolve under the leadership of Greg, and the hard work of our employees and volunteers. I think the board, too, has done a good job of being open to suggestions and working with the employees to create a create a productive environment where people are shown respect and given their due. I want to thank everyone for making my time here such a positive experience. I know that Nexus will continue to be a pillar of the Camosun community long after I'm gone.
